"The Rum-Runner's Review" is a variety show set in the Roaring 20s full of singing, skits and even a little magic that will keep you entertained after a delicious meal at one of the best Italian restaurants in the area.

Benny da Weasel is about to open up the hottest Speakeasy in town - but he's having all kinds of troubles.

His long-time fiancée, Suzie LaFlouzie, is supposed to be the entertainment for the evening but she doesn't want to go onstage.

His booze delivery seems to be nowhere in sight. And, worst of all, the cops are sniffing around the whole place - determined to shut him down before he can even open!
